

EXERCISE 10-2 Needed words Before working this exercise, read section 10 in Rules for Writers, Fifth Edition.

Circle the letter of the clearer sentence in each pair. Example:

a. Mary Wollstonecraft felt a woman did not have to marry a man in order to live with him.

b. Mary Wollstonecraft felt that a woman did not have to marry a man in order to live with him.

1a. She never married, or wanted to, her first suitor.

b. She never married, or wanted to marry, her first suitor.

2a. With Gilbert Imlay, she discovered that travel could teach her much about the business world.

b. With Gilbert Imlay, she discovered travel could teach her much about the business world.

3a. She had a more intellectual relationship with William Godwin than Gilbert Imlay.

b. She had a more intellectual relationship with William Godwin than with Gilbert Imlay.

4a. In one way she may have been as conservative as, if not more conservative than, other women of her day.

b. In one way she may have been as conservative, if not more conservative, than other women of her day.

5a. Marrying Godwin when she became pregnant may have shown that she believed in and acted by society's rules for pregnant women.

b. Marrying Godwin when she became pregnant may have shown that she believed and acted by society's rules for pregnant women.